Great Frederick fare

By Ethel Loeb

Harold Weisberg, who also lives on Old Receiver Road, was mentioned recently in Jack Anderson's column, as you may have noticed. Anderson reports the existence of the FBI's voluminous files on Martin Luther King was discovered by Harold.

Harold's house is a treasure trove of files of which he has more than 60 cabinets on the King story and Kennedy assassinations.

Harold takes early morning strolls in the Frederick Towne Mall if you ever want to discuss anything with him on the subject.
